Papers presented at the Portland OR meeting may be considered for publication in the Proceedings at the author’s request. THERE IS A SUBMISSION FEE OF $50; IF YOUR PAPER IS NOT ACCEPTED FOR PUBLICATION, THE ALSB WILL REFUND $25 TO YOU. (This is in addition to the conference registration fee. YOU CAN PAY THIS ON THE ELECTRONIC CONFERENCE REGISTRATON FORM.

If you are presenting a paper and would like to have it considered for publication in the Proceedings, you must submit via the electronic Conference Call-for-Participation and you must upload it by May 1st, 2018.

The Proceedings for the Portland meeting will be double-blind, peer reviewed. The criteria for judging papers include the following:

Relevance - the paper should relate to business law, the legal environment, or the teaching of same.

Scholarly contribution - the paper: should advance or clarify the body of knowledge relating to the topic; or
- make a useful contribution to the understanding of any part of the topic; or
- make a useful contribution to the art of teaching that topic.

Original Research - the paper should involve "original research", defined as a paper that has neither been accepted for publication nor published previously anywhere (including but not limited to any ALSB National or Regional Proceedings) nor presented previously at any ALSB national conference or any other national conference. Papers that have been previously published or accepted for publication (i.e., are forthcoming) by a journal or review are not eligible.

Writing quality - the paper should fulfill its purpose or objectives and should follow standard rules of grammar regarding clarity of expression, style, sentence construction, and coherence;

Readiness for publication - the paper should meet ALSB form requirements (below) and should comply with the Harvard Blue Book style sheet. Since the proceedings are published electronically, there is no maximum page length.

For inclusion in the Proceedings, papers submitted must fulfill all the above criteria. All papers will be blind refereed; authors will receive the reviewers’ comments. Papers accepted for publication must comply with the general instructions and guidelines. The following general instructions and guidelines are provided in the interest of uniformity and economy:

Word Processing Format: All papers must be processed in single-spaced, Times New Roman 12 point formatting.
Margins: Except for the title page, the margins from the top and bottom of the page must be exactly 3/4 inch; the right and left margins must be exactly 3/4 inch. Graphs, charts and illustrations must conform to these margin requirements.

Title Page: To facilitate the blind review, the author’s name and affiliation should appear only on the title page. All other references to the author should be redacted in the paper. Begin typing the body of the paper on the next page.

Sample title page:

MASS TORTS AND FREE RIDERS: WILL THE MADNESS EVER END?

By

Daniel Herron*

* Professor, Miami University, Oxford OH 45056

Spacing: At the beginning of each paragraph, indent 5 spaces. Do not double-space between paragraphs or in the footnotes. The paper should be single-spaced, except for titles and headings, which should be double-spaced.

Page Numbering: Do not number the pages. These will be inserted when the manuscript is prepared for publication.

Paper Size: Format the paper to an 8 1/2 x 11 inches size.

Footnotes: Harvard Blue Book style.